

Jason Sheldon – Spokane, WA

“Skin Deep”

Sculptural Style: Fabrications in wood, and recently copper and sheet steel.

Artist Statement: The inspiration for my work comes from the forms that I see in this exquisitely created world. The twists and spirals of an exposed root system, the gentle folds of the petals of a flower, the wind hewed snow on a winter’s day. These are forms that I try to work into every piece I create.