

HAYSTACK ROCK at Cannon Beach was closed to climbers as of Monday afternoon when sign prohibiting unauthorized climbers was pounded into rock by Richard S. Rodgers (left), of Federal Bureau of Sport fisheries and Wildlife. At right is Cannon Beach police chief John West. Prohibiting sign came after Portland man was rescued from top of 190-foot bird refuge.